

Central Vic Salvos

16th June 2024

Have you ever messed up? Perhaps you said something hurtful, did something cruel, or just made a mistake. Well, the disciple Peter could relate.

I have been reflecting on Luke 22:54-62 this week. When Jesus was being taken to be judged and later crucified, Peter denied Jesus. Not just once- but three undeniably clear times. Jesus had to be hurt by the betrayal, and Peter definitely felt bad—he cried once he realized what he'd done (Mark 14:72).

We know that Peter knew Jesus and was actually one of His closest friends. His account shows that sometimes we may even hurt people we love.

If Peter could say something to us today, I think that he would probably remind us that there's always a chance for redemption.

After the resurrection, Jesus appeared to the disciples multiple times. On one of these post-resurrection appearances, he had a conversation with Peter after breakfast. And in this conversation, Peter got to tell Jesus that he loved Him not once, but three times. How meaningful must that have felt??

At the end of their conversation, Jesus simply told Peter to feed His sheep and follow Him. What does that mean exactly? Jesus asked Peter to teach and take care of His followers. He asked Peter to keep making more disciples of Christ. He asked him to lead the church.

Maybe, like Peter, you're beating yourself up over something you said or did that hurt a loved one. Maybe you're haunted by those hateful words or comments you left someone online. Maybe you regret bullying someone in primary or high school.

All you have to do is run to Jesus and repent. He'll give you the grace you need to heal from your pain and move on from your mistakes with new truths.

Your mistakes only define you if you let them. Peter went on to feed Jesus' sheep. He went on to write some of the New Testament, to spread the Good News, and to die for Christ.

So go on. Don't stay stuck. You've been redeemed.

60 YEARS OF RED SHIELD APPEAL

How exciting is it to celebrate the fact that the Red Shield Appeal turned 60 this year. A year where more than ever The Salvation Army is needed to support people in many ways. Did you know that the corps across Central Vic Salvos have been serving the community for approximately 500 combined.

While officially the Red Shield Appeal is still open until the end of the month, I wanted to let you all know what has been raised so far.

Bendigo Region - $30,753.25

Castlemaine - $3923

Maryborough - $10,215.25

This is absolutely amazing, and I know that this will make a huge impact on our local communities. The best part about this is 100% of Red Shield funds raised locally stays locally.

Again I would like to take the opportunity to thank each and every person who has helped make the 60th Red Shield Appeal such a success.

Regards,
Ronald Stobie
