LIMITLESS

LIMITLESS GRACE

Last Sunday morning I had the privilege, along with the band, to participate in a service to commemorate the Fall of Singapore. Right before the beginning the service the band played a stirring arrangement of Amazing Grace, which grabbed everyone's attention. It's a hymn that is well known & loved by many people across all generations. The tune is so familiar, even to the point where so many people could quote at least the first 2 lines...

"Amazing Grace, how sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me . . ."

But somehow, like so many other familiar tunes, the weight of the words soon gets lost in our familiarity with the song and we can easily become numbed to its profound message.

I don't think I've ever referred to myself as 'a wretch' - I like to think of myself in much better terms than that. But if we each compare our life (both seen and unseen) to the holiness of God, there is no other term to describe our true nature.

God sees that within us, but loves us still & offers us His undeserving forgiveness - His grace - His Amazing Grace.

Only you can decide whether God's grace is merely a favorite song that stirs your heart or a conviction of your heart in which you accept His amazing grace and live in the unmerited favor of him who calls you out of darkness, who clothes you in holiness, who gives you confidence that his kingdom will never end.

That truly is amazing grace!
