

This week on July 2nd, we celebrated Founders' Day. This is a day on which we celebrate the worldwide Army God raised through the Booths, acknowledging all He can accomplish through each of us when we give Him our all.

As we celebrate, let's not forget why God raised us up, to be Jesus-centred, Spirit-led, hope revealed. Let's allow God who has raised up His Army and has been faithful in doing awe-inspiring things through this movement to continue to work in us each. Give yourself over to God and allow Him to give us a strong purpose and shape the way we - as a movement- do what we do. Greater things are yet to Come!

"Now to the God who can do so many awe-inspiring things, immeasurable things, things greater than we ever could ask or imagine through the power at work in us, to Him be all glory in the church and in Jesus the Anointed from this generation to the next, forever and ever. Amen!"

- Ephesians 3:20-21 (The Voice paraphrase)

Catherine Booth once said, "To better the future we must disturb the present." This is personal; it begins with the Spirit in and through me.

Youth Camp '24

I had really loved and enjoyed my experience at Youth Camp. With expectations of it being like a school camp, I thought it was going to be just good, but it had far exceeded expectations being much better than I had imagined it to be. There were many things I had enjoyed while at camp being the fellowship, worship, activities and just growing a relationship with God.

Although being the only person from my corps, I found it easy to get along with people, never feeling alone or socially excluded while at camp. I think what really helped was having a consistent group throughout most of it, allowing us to bond deeper in faith together. Having chosen music as my stream, I didn't realise I had to play in front of everyone else. I was grateful I had the opportunity to, for though I was getting anxious beforehand, when time came, I was relieved of any anxiety. No matter if I was off beat or playing the wrong chord, I felt surrounded by God's presence. I learnt that playing music is not about performing for others but worshipping Jesus.

Engaging in all the activities there was quite fun. Tribal Wars, The Amazing Race and games at mealtime were all enjoyable. But I had enjoyed more so the discipleship, leadership and just sitting with the other young adults around a campfire got me thinking deeper and more grateful of what I have.

While on camp, I had definitely felt I grew a deeper connection with God, feeling I wanted more of him. To pray more, to play more songs about him and to talk to people about him. Overall, it was an enjoyable experience. I would highly recommend for anyone who has the opportunity for it was well worth it.

God's Sports Arena

Hi. I hope everybody has had a great month.

There is so much happening and it is fantastic. First of all it was great that Ashley and Bronwyn attended the youth camp. That left me with a free week. Woo hoo!!

Well it didn't really pan out that way but with Open House and ER closed for the week it freed up a bit of my time to better connect with other services. I had a lovely and busy time visiting other organisations to see first hand what they are offering and where we as a church fit in. It is busy and exciting times.

The Gold Coast marathon is on Sunday 7th of July. I won't be at church as I am taking the Kia down to support our PNG friends. How exciting will that be!.

If anyone is interested in meeting our friends from PNG and learning more about the mission they will be at GSA on the 14/07 with Colonel Winsome also attending. If you would like to  and I will leave some lights on Till next month. How blessed is my life.

If you have any further questions, please contact Jaiden or Nicole.
