GOD CALLS THE IMPERFECT.

Have you ever considered how many perfect people there are in the world? How about in the bible? It probably seems silly asking these questions, because we all know that no one is perfect. But sometimes I wonder if our 'knowing' has become true understanding? When we consider all the perfect people in the bible, only 1 person comes to mind – Jesus - which leaves us with hundreds, if not thousands, of stories of imperfect people; with many of these imperfect people being used by God for the sake of his mission to bring hope to the world.

I often wonder why Jesus chose the individuals He did, I wonder sometimes why he chose me. But I have come to realise that His reason for choosing people who, like me, are imperfect, to carry out His mission, is to further prove our need for the perfect Saviour. God didn't call the popular, rich or successful to further his ministry, and he still doesn't today. But rather, he calls the poor, the broken and the faithful. I can only imagine how confused the Pharisees and religious leaders must have been when they saw the people Jesus was calling upon to follow Him. They were a team of misfits with nothing to lose, but who had everything to gain in their decision to follow Jesus.

From an outside perspective, it is easy for us to say that it doesn't matter where people are from, what they had done, or who they use to be. But it is different to truly understand the concept and believe it for ourselves, knowing all that we do about us, our failures and short comings; that Jesus can use us for the good of His will. If it is proof we need, we can look to the bible and read the many stories that tell of imperfect people being used by God for His mission. People like Moses with a speech problem, or Rahab the prostitute, Peter who denied Jesus three times, David the murderer, Gideon who was afraid, Jonah who ran away from God, Noah the drunk or even Paul the Pharisee who spend his days persecuting Christians before becoming one himself. That's just to name a few and I'm almost certain that if you were to ask any Christian leader or mentor for a personal example, they would have their own imperfect story to share too.

We all have our imperfections; we have all made mistakes and will probably continue to make more as time goes on. But it's through our imperfections and mistakes that we learn to be better and grow deeper in our relationship with Jesus as we experience God's grace and realise our need for a Saviour. It's with this knowledge that we have the power to live a life that brings purpose and joy, and that will take us places we never imagined reaching.

I pray that you come to truly believe and understand this for yourself today.

Blessings,
Amy Stobie (Captain)

MELBOURNE STAFF SONGSTER VISIT

Last weekend we were privileged to have the Melbourne Staff Songsters visit Bendigo. It was a jammed packed weekend with a concert at the Mall followed by a family fun afternoon and finally the Melbourne Staff Songsters lead Sunday worship.

Bendigo city council have plans in place to revitalise the Mall to see it become more of a community space. You may remember that towards the start of may we had the launch of the Red Shield Appeal in the Mall and last weekend the Melbourne staff songsters were able to provide a free concert for the community. The Mall was with the voices from the songsters.

Following the concert a family funday was held at gravel hill. There was jumping castles, slot cars, crafts, big games, face painting and much much more. The night concluded with the Songsters putting on another community concert. It was amazing to see so many people from the community running around the site having lots of fun.

If the above wasn't enough the Songsters finished there weekend with leading worship on Sunday morning. Joined by people from across Central Vic Salvos it was an amazing God glorifying time of worship and a wonderful time of fellowship over lunch.
