RED SHIELD APPEAL, SUPPORTED BY THE COMMUNITY, FOR THE COMMUNITY

This year marks my very first experience with the Red Shield Appeal, and I am thrilled to see so many members of the community contributing in various ways to support this Appeal. It's incredibly encouraging to witness people helping each other, and it reminds me of the parable of the Good Samaritan told by Jesus.

In this story, a man was traveling from Jerusalem to Jericho when he was robbed and beaten. Many people passed by without helping, but the Good Samaritan stopped, provided medical attention, and took the man to an inn. The Samaritan's actions surely brought him blessings, as helping others is a direct spiritual gift, often referred to as the gift of Service or Mercy. Those with this gift typically possess a servant's heart and a passion for supporting others.

Scripture teaches us about various forms of help and support, including Emotional Support, Financial Support, Physical Support, Social Support, Practical Support, and Informational Support. Hebrews 13:16 reminds us, "And do not forget to do good and to share with others, for with such sacrifices God is pleased." Additionally, Luke 6:30 says, "Give to everyone who begs from you, and from one who takes away your goods do not demand them back." William Booth, the founder of the Salvation Army, once said that if he could share just one word with the entire Salvation Army, it would be "Others." Indeed, there are immense blessings in helping and supporting others.

May God guide us in our efforts to help and support those in need.

Spotlight

National Reconciliation Week (27 May - 3 June) is a time for all Australians to learn about our shared histories, cultures, and achievements, and to explore how each of us can contribute to achieving reconciliation in Australia. The theme for 2024 is, 'Now more than ever'.

In Bundjalung, a Banaam (baa-narm)/Goguan (gog-orn) or little brother/big brother relationship illustrates how we might work together towards Reconciliation. In this type of relationship, both parties have equal responsibility and importance, but perform different roles. Every person will be a Goguan at times and a Banaam at other times. A Gogaun carries knowledge, and the responsibility for leadership. A Banaam brings strength to help the Gogaun to succeed in their objectives. The two roles provide balance for each other and both are equally important for success.

Now More Than Ever... We need to create space for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander peoples to lead with the knowledge they have as the Goguan and just as importantly, we need non-Indigenous Australians to naturally take up the role as Banaam, to support the Goguan's leadership and vice versa. This is about a partnership of respect and contribution, respecting the knowledge of the Goguan and the contributing role of the Banaam - when these two roles are working together, we are in right relationship, the relationship is reconciled.

So today, we call on Australians, Indigenous and non-Indigenous, to stand together and take responsibility for our journey towards Reconciliation. Bring your knowledge. Bring your leadership. Bring your strength. Bring your support. Now, more than ever, let us unite in our action for Reconciliation.

We acknowledge with gratitude Coodjimbingurra/Bundjalung Elder, Kyle Slabb, for sharing his wisdom and knowledge of Banaam/Goguan.
